

CBRE DIVERSITY SCHOLARS GRADUATE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

As part of our commitment to furthering diversity and inclusion in our company and industry, we are pleased to offer the CBRE Diversity Scholars Program. The program was developed to support diversity in honor of former CBRE board of directors' members who are alumni. The initiative provides a 10-week paid summer internship to ethnically diverse graduate business students at targeted universities.

The program's intent is to advance students' readiness for potential careers in commercial real estate by:

- Empowering learning through meaningful work experiences
- Enhancing professional presence through exposure to senior executives and other leaders
- Creating connections and accelerating industry knowledge through collaboration with CBRE colleagues

QUALIFIED CANDIDATES MUST:

- Be a business graduate student at a targeted university
- Graduate studies in Real Estate Development, Finance, Management, Urban Planning, Economics, etc.
- Have an expressed interest in a career in the commercial real estate industry or in a field directly relevant to the industry (ex. finance, global investors, capital markets, etc.)
- Be of excellent academic standing (GPA-3.0)
- Have at least one year, but no more than two years, remaining to finish degree requirements
- Access, complete and submit an application via the targeted school's portal.
- Be a U.S. citizen or permanent resident. At this time, CBRE will not sponsor a new applicant for employment authorization for this position.

INTERNSHIP INCLUDES:

Participation in relevant, developmental work assignments and a targeted internship project, meetings with executive leaders including the company CEO, participation in an onsite orientation with other interns from across the country, learning & development webinars, as well participation in community outreach activities.

We are offering the following internship opportunities. Candidates selected for interview can be considered for one of the opportunities listed below:
