

Haas Veterans Club List of Pre-MBA Opportunities

Company/Program	Description	Link	Deadline
Bain Experience Bain Diversity	Held at Bain's New York office, this program is a 2-day 'immersion' into the world of consulting at Bain. At the end of our program, you'll have experienced an interactive taste of what it means to be a consultant at Bain. You'll also learn what it takes to nail the internship offer. Our program is geared specifically to African/African-American, Latino/Hispanic, and Native American students interested in learning more about Bain's unique position in the global management consulting landscape and our career path opportunities.	http://www.bain.com/careers/events/premba.aspx	TBD
Bank of America	The Bank of America Merrill Lynch MBA Diversity Fellowship Program will award merit-based fellowships to Black/African American, Hispanic/Latino, Native American, military veterans, LGBT, students with disabilities and women in their first year of business school.	https://campus.bankofamerica.com/careers/Global-Banking-and-Markets-MBA-Diversity-Fellowship-US.html	TBD
Barclays	Barclays' MBA Ambition program gives talented MBA candidates the opportunity to secure an internship with a world-class financial institution before they even step into business school. As a candidate, you'll experience a condensed version of our on-campus recruitment process, culminating in interviews at our New York office. Successful candidates will receive an offer to join Barclays Investment Bank for a Banking internship to take place during the following summer, after their first year. Candidates who receive an internship offer may also be considered for our highly competitive fellowship program, which includes an internship offer coupled with $45,000 toward their first-year tuition and academic expenses. And after a successful first summer with us, fellows could be eligible for an additional $45,000 toward their second MBA year if they choose to rejoin Barclays full-time after graduation.	https://joinus.barclays/americas/diversity-programs/mba-ambition-diversity-program/	TBD
